Contents

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 1, FEBRUARY 1995

Published 1 February 1995

JOHN ALCOCK

Persistent size variation in the anthophorine bee Centris pallida (Apidae) despite a large male mating advantage 1-4

M. F. BRABY

Reproductive seasonality in tropical satyrine butterflies:
strategies for the dry season 5-17

ROBERT S. FRITZ

Direct and indirect effects of plant genetic variation on enemy impact 18-26

MARY L. CROWE

The effect of season and group size on survivorship and larval growth in Plagiodera versicolora 27-32

TADASHI KOMATSU and S. AKIMOTO

Genetic differentiation as a result of adaptation to the phenologies of individual host trees in the galling aphid Kaltenbachella japonica 33-42

PATRICIA L. M. LEE and DALE H. CLAYTON

Population biology of swift (Apus apus) ectoparasites in relation to host reproductive success 43-50

E. S. MCCLOUD, D. W. TALLAMY and

F. T. HALAWEISH

Squash beetle trenching behaviour: avoidance of cucurbitacin induction or mucilaginous plant sap? 51-59

ROBERT A. KREBS and J. S. F. BARKER

Larval age differences and competition between Drosophila aldrichi and D. buzzatii 60-64

DAVID S. PHILLIPS, MARGARET LEGGETT,

RAY WILCOCKSON, THOMAS H. DAY and

WALLACE ARTHUR

Coexistence of competing species of seaweed flies:
the role of temperature 65-74

DIANA PILSON and MARK D. RAUSHER

Clumped distribution patterns in goldenrod aphids:
genetic and ecological mechanisms 75-83

HREFNA SIGURJÓNSDÓTTIR and

SIGURDUR S. SNORRASON

Distribution of male yellow dungflies around oviposition sites: the effect of body size 84-90

R. WALL, N. P. FRENCH and K. K. MORGAN

Population suppression for control of the blowfly Lucilia
sericata and sheep blowfly strike 91-97

ALAN J. A. STEWART and ANN F. WRIGHT

A new inexpensive suction apparatus for sampling arthropods in grassland 98-102

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 2, MAY 1995

Published 22 May 1995

GEOFF R. ALLEN

The biology of the phonotactic parasitoid, Homotrixia sp.
(Diptera: Tachinidae), and its impact on the survival of male Sciarasaga quadrata (Orthoptera: Tettigoniidae) in the field 103-110

A. F. G. DIXON, P. KINDLMANN and V. JAROŠIK

Body size distribution in aphids: relative surface area of specific plant structures 111-117

M. MACKAUER and R. M. LARDNER

Sex-ratio bias in an aphid parasitoid-hyperparasitoid association: a test of two hypotheses 118-124

PASCALE M. LÉONARD and STEVEN A. JULIANO

Effect of the leaf litter and density on fitness and population performance of the hole mosquito Aedes triseriatus 125-136

P. L. MASON, R. A. NICHOLS and G. M. HEWITT

Philopatry in the alpine grasshopper, Podisma pedestris:
a novel experimental and analytical method 137-145

L. CHUKA MADUBUNYI

Bloodmeal evacuation from the midgut of Glossina pallidipes in relation to tsetse foraging activity and trappability 146-152

J. MEMMOTT, R. K. DAY and H. C. J. GODFRAY
Intraspecific variation in host plant quality: the aphid
Cinara cupressi on the Mexican cypress, Cupressus
lusitanica 153–158

ALAN MOLUMBY

Dynamics of parasitism in the organ-pipe wasp, Trypoxylon politum: effects of spatial scale on parasitoid functional response 159–168

GRAHAM N. STONE, PHILIP M. J. LODER and TIM M. BLACKBURN

Foraging and courtship behaviour in males of the solitary bee Anthophora plumipes (Hymenoptera: Anthophoridae): thermal physiology and the roles of body size 169–183

PETER STILING and ANTHONY M. ROSSI

Coastal insect herbivore communities are affected more by local environmental conditions than by plant genotype 184–190

Short Communications

DARRYL T. GWYNNE and ANDY W. SNEDDEN

Paternity and female remating in Requena verticalis
(Orthoptera: Tettigoniidae) 191–194

BRADFORD A. HAWKINS

Latitudinal body-size gradients for the bees of the eastern United States 195–198

S. M. SAIT, R. A. ANDREEV, M. BEGON,

D. J. THOMPSON, J. A. HARVEY and R. D. SWAIN
Ventura canescens parasitizing Plodia interpunctella:
host vulnerability – a matter of degree 199–201

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 3, AUGUST 1995

Published 1 August 1995

JOUNI ASPI and ARY A. HOFFMANN

Distribution and spacing of Drosophila mycetophaga flies on bracket fungi used as mating arenas 203–207

M. DEANE BOWERS and ERNEST H. WILLIAMS

Variable chemical defence in the checkerspot butterfly
Euphydryas gillettii (Lepidoptera: Nymphalidae)
208–212

A. CORDERO

Correlates of male mating success in two natural populations of the damselfly Ischnura graellsii (Odonata: Coenagrionidae) 213–222

SUSAN HARRISON and JOHN L. MARON

Impacts of defoliation by tussock moths (Orgyia vetusta) on the growth and reproduction of bush lupine (Lupinus arboreus) 223–229

GREGORY D. D. HURST, ROSIE G. SHARPE,

ANGELA H. BROOMFIELD, LINDA E. WALKER, TAMSIN M. O. MAJERUS, ILIA A. ZAKHAROV and MICHAEL E. N. MAJERUS

Sexually transmitted disease in a promiscuous insect,
Adalia bipunctata 230–236

JANE K. HILL and IAN D. HODKINSON

Effects of temperature on phenological synchrony and altitudinal distribution of jumping plant lice (Hemiptera: Psylloidea) on dwarf willow (Salix lapponum) in Norway 237–244

J. M. NELSON and B. D. ROITBERG

Flexible patch time allocation by the leafminer parasitoid, Opius dimidiatus 245–252

MICHAEL S. NUCKOLS and EDWARD F. CONNOR

Do trees in urban or ornamental plantings receive more damage by insects than trees in natural forests?
253–260

MAIJA-LIISA PRINKKILÄ and ILKKA HANSKI

Complex competitive interactions in four species of Lucilia blowflies 261–272

MALLIKARJUN SHAKARAD and

RAGHAVENDRA GADAGKAR

Colony founding in the primitively eusocial wasp,
Ropalidia marginata (Hymenoptera: Vespidae) 273–282

JANNE SUOMELA, PEKKA KAITANIEMI and ANNA NILSON

Systematic within-tree variation in mountain birch leaf quality for a geometrid, Epirrita autumnata 283–292

WOLFGANG VÖLKL and PETRA KRANZ

Nocturnal activity and resource utilization in the aphid hyperparasitoid, Dendrocerus carpenteri 293–297

Short Communication

MARTHA R. WEISS

Associative colour learning in a nymphalid butterfly
298–301

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 4, NOVEMBER 1995

Published 30 November 1995

GEOFF R. ALLEN

The calling behaviour and spatial distribution of male bushcrickets (Sciarasaga quadrata) and their relationship to parasitism by acoustically orienting tachinid flies 303–310

LEON BLAUSTEIN, BURT P. KOTLER and DAVID WARD

Direct and indirect effects of a predatory backswimmer (Notonecta maculata) on community structure of desert temporary pools 311–318

ROBERT A. CHEKE

Potential rates of increase of solitary and gregarious phases of the African armyworm Spodoptera exempta
(Lepidoptera: Noctuidae) 319–325

JANINE W. A. M. PIJLS, KEES D. HOFKER, MARTIN J. VAN STAALDUINEN and JACQUES J. M. VAN ALPHEN

Interspecific host discrimination and competition in Apoanagyrus (Epidinocarsis) lopezi and
A. (E.) diversicornis, parasitoids of the cassava mealybug
Phenacoccus manihoti 326–332

KENNETH DE SOUZA, JOHNSON HOLT and JOHN COLVIN

Diapause, migration and pyrethroid-resistance dynamics in the cotton bollworm, Helicoverpa armigera
(Lepidoptera: Noctuidae) 333–342

C. A. FIELDING and J. C. COULSON

A test of the validity of insect food-plant and life history records: Lepidoptera on heather (Calluna vulgaris) 343–350

GUNTER FREESE

Structural refuges in two stem-boring weevils on Rumex crispus 351–358

Y. KIM, E. S. KRAFSUR, T. B. BAILEY and SULING ZHAO

Mode of inheritance of face fly diapause and its correlation with other developmental traits 359–366

SHIN-ICHI KUDO, EIJI ISHIBASHI and SHUN'ICHI MAKINO

Reproductive and subsocial behaviour in the ovoviparous leaf beetle Gonioctena sibirica
(Coleoptera: Chrysomelidae) 367–373

HARRINGTON WELLS and RAM R. S. RATHORE

Discriminant conditioning of foragers in the Asian honey bees Apis cerana and A. dorsata 374–379

MARLENE ZUK, LEIGH W. SIMMONS and JOHN T. ROTENBERRY

Acoustically-orienting parasitoids in calling and silent males of the field cricket Teleogryllus oceanicus 380–383

DIANE WAGNER

Pupation site choice of a North American lycaenid butterfly: the benefits of entering ant nests 384–392

Short Communications

RYAN D. CSADA and DIANE L. NEUDORF

Effects of predation risk on mate choice in female Acheta domesticus crickets 393–395

S. E. HARTLEY and S. M. GARDNER

The response of Philaenus spumarius (Homoptera: Cercopidae) to fertilizing and shading its moorland host-plant (Calluna vulgaris) 396–399
